Jewish Washington: Scrapbook of an American Community

Continue celebrating 350 years of Jewish life in America with this original exhibition. Due to its popularity, Jewish Washington has been extended through July 4, 2006.

JHSGW Collection

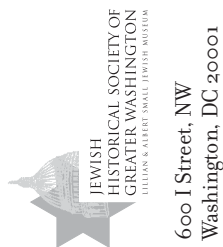

The Jewish Historical Society of Greater Washington and its Lillian & Albert Small Jewish Museum preserve, chronicle, and present the story of the local Jewish community through archival collections, exhibitions, educational programs, publications, and the restoration and preservation of the oldest synagogue building in the nation's capital.

130TH Anniversary Celebration

You are cordially invited to celebrate the 130th anniversary of the oldest synagogue building in the nation's capital.

One of the oldest in the United States, our historic synagogue is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and the D.C. Inventory of Historic Places, and is designated an Official Project of Save America's Treasures.

Join us for a special program commemorating the June 9, 1876, dedication of our historic synagogue. Rabbi Shmuel Herzfeld of Ohev Sholom-The National Synagogue, one of the area's oldest congregations, will lead the festivities.

Friday, June 9
12:00 - 1:30 p.m.
Lunch will follow the ceremony (dietary laws observed)
