

JEWISH WASHINGTON: SCRAPBOOK OF AN AMERICAN COMMUNITY

This 100-page hardcover book features brief essays and a historic overview of the Jewish families, businesses, congregations, neighborhoods, and communal organizations in the city and its suburbs. Includes text from the original exhibition of the same name as well more than 100 images of historic documents, artifacts, and photographs from the Society's collections.

Share the stories of Jewish Washington with your family and friends.

___ number of copies @ $20 each $ _____
Contact JHSGW about discounts for purchases of 10 or more books!

Shipping and handling @ $7 per book $ _____

TOTAL $ _____

Name(s) _____ Date: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

I would like more information about the Society! Add me to your email list!

To charge your credit card: Visa Am Ex MasterCard Discover

Name on the card: _____

Card No. _____ Exp. Date: _____

Make checks payable and mail to:
Jewish Historical Society
P.O. Box 791104
Baltimore, MD 21279

Business Office & Archives:
 701 4th Street, NW, Ste. 200
 Washington, DC 20001
 Phone: (202) 789-0900
 Fax: (202) 789-0485
 E-mail: info@jhsgw.org
 www.jhsgw.org

1876 Historic Synagogue Site:
 A project of Save America's Treasures
 701 Third Street, N.W. (corner of 3rd & G)